CHA students join the fight against cancer

*Jillian Howell
(10th grade)*

Charlton Heston Academy had their first ever Relay Recess event on Friday May 22nd, 2015 with the help of Mrs. Jackson of the American Cancer Society. Relay Recess is a way to empower children to fight against cancer and educate them about a healthy life-style and prevention of cancer. Relay Recess has been happening for around ten years but this is our first one in Roscommon County. Relay for Life has been around for thirty years. Charlton Heston Academy became involved in 2014 with our first ever teacher team. Now some kids want to get involved in a bigger way. The teacher team included Ms. Evans, Mrs. Carroll, Mr. Church, Mrs. Church, Ms. Johnson, Mr. Canamore, and a few other teachers. Mrs. Johnson said, "Last year as a school we were working together to raise money for Relay for Life, we did a decent job but this year we made it a school wide involvement, and we're kicking butt against cancer!" We raised $1,356.72 cents but still have a dress down day that will be going towards this foundation. On June 20th, 2015 there will be a Relay for Life even in Roscommon County. Hope to see you there!

Movie Review: Earth to Echo

*Nicole Marshall
(8th grade)*
The movie was about these 3 boys who are looking for a alien or something because there phones keep making a weired noise. They found an alien thing and then they called the alien Echo be-cause whenever someone said beep it said the same noise. Echo was relased in July on the second in 2014. Mrs.Mozdzen watched it with us and she laughted a lot. Alyson Ambler loved the movie and so did Breanna Meir. Breanna Meir said that she Loves and was confused when Echo moved trucks out the way and Echo took it apart. Earth to Echo is on Netflix if anyone wants to watch it.

CHA students tutor younger students

Roseann tutoring a fellow student

*Dryden Pierce
(8th grade)*
Earlier this year, History Teacher Ms.Bozzo and some high school students put on a tutoring program. The goal of this; to help students who are troubled in learning perform better. High school-ers involved with this include Amanda Hart, Karlee Green, Felicity Kimball, Roseann Johnson, Brooke Kohlkoff, Brandon Perryman,and Amanda Sanchez. I inter-viewed Roseann about her experienc-es tutoring, and she replied “The best part of doing this is helping troubled stu-dents get the help they need.” This is definitely a great experience for both the tutors and those they help. Let's look forward to more great opportunities for CHA students in the coming years.

CHA Cheerleaders are Back in Action!

*Danielle Marshall
(8th grade)*
CHA’s cheerleaders are back in action. They are going to start the spring/summer time off practicing for the next school year. The coaches are Ms. Johnson coaching the 6-8th graders and Ms.Bozzo coaching the high schoolers. Many girls showed up to the first meet-ing, even one boy named Randy Hendges. Ms. Bozzo plans to do a lot for the team. They are athletes, so they are going to train like athletes. The teams will have condition-ing 3 days a week through the summer. Their first practice was on April 28th, it was chaotic but eve-ryone still had fun. Ms.Johnson, Ms.Bozzo, and all the girls/boys who joined are all super excited. Ms. Bozzo was even a high school cheerleader, back in the day. Ms.Bozzo even plans on getting eve-ryone to go to camp. But for now, it’s conditioning. She says that she is excit-ed and everyone cannot wait to see what all the practice and hard working will bring.

PTO Painting at Hen House

Danielle Marshall (8th grade) Jennifer Romanky Austin and Tracy Cruz recently had their 2nd painting class. Their first one was at the Firehouse Restaurant. Their second class was held at the Hen House Restaurant, a local business in St.Helen. The Hen House offered their building for the art class. In the second class they had more people than they expected, many of them new. Judy Scroggin said that she had a blast and never thought she could paint what she did. Everyone had marvelous paintings that were sure award winning. They plan on doing one for CHA's students. A class for the Elementary students, middle school, and high school students. It cost 30 dollars for their class, but for the students they ask for 5 dollars per person. The PTO hope to have more opportunities for the students of CHA.

Featured Teacher:

Miss Kinney

Alyssa Davies (9th grade)
Miss. Kinney ? Who's that! That's right she's a new second grade teachers! Unbelievable right ? Miss. Kinney went to Saginaw valley state university for college. Great choice Miss. Kinney ! Miss. Kinney loves to camp and read lots of books! One of her favorite books are Bad case of the striped pajamas . Everyone has a favorite color right !? Well Miss. Kinney's favorite color is purple ! Totally cool right ! Thank you Miss. Kinney for being so great at teaching second grade !

“My Michigan Hero” Essay winners from CHA Announced

Dryden Pierce (8th grade)
On Friday, May 15th, the winners of the annual My Michigan Hero essay competition for 8th grade were announced. The event, which 8th graders entered months earlier, is state-wide and sponsored by Farm Bureau Insurance. What is it exactly?

Well, 8th grade students across the state write an essay about their personal hero, who resides in Michigan. In CHA, 7 students entered. The top three winners were Dryden Pierce (3rd), Jacob Beardsley(2nd), and Sam Jarosz(1st). Sam received a plaque with her name embedded into it, which represents her infamous commitment to the art of writing. When Sam talked about her experiences, she said that she was "very surprised" that she won. So, congratulations to all the winners and and everyone who participated, and thanks to Barbara Costello for representing our district.

Dryden Pierce, Jacob Beardsley, and Samantha Jarosz receive their awards from Barb Costello of Farm Bureau Insurance in Roscommon
